

Latest update on fires in the Eden district

Thursday, 08 June 2017

Last Updated Thursday, 08 June 2017

8 June 2017 - 19:00

Â

At this point and time, there are no run-away fires. In Knysna and Plettenberg Bay, several flare-ups and hotspots are being attended to. Late afternoon, aerial support was utilised for an hour and a half.Â All areas are being monitored with extreme vigilance.

The Eden District Municipality would also like to thank residents from the district and even from the rest of the country, who have opened their hearts and brought /send donations.